God delights in making up what we lack. Unfortunately, the path that takes us to the promise is always wrought with thickets and thorns.

And they had John also to assist. Daily comforts from the gospel of Christ provide. Or if the child asks for a fish, will give a snake? As I read your article, what resonates within me is the issue of identity. Nonetheless, the gifts you already have may give you some indication about how to best meet the needs of the world. What God is offering you is free. You are the source of my joy and every blessing. Father, thank You for making me a living sacrifice. Hi William, Interesting you said stressful days that you created.
