A Twist in the Tale - A Story Telling event - - International Year of Indigenous Language

Initially in their own Mother Tongue then in English. There will be time after that to explore the story, the language, the provenance; in a kind.

'Twist in the tail' and 'Twist in the tale'. | WordReference Forums

Way better than the first one (With the Aladdin backstory). This one was probably my favorite. Very funny and with some really creative twists. Fun for the die hard.

How to Train Your Dragon 2. So that's on me. There would be parts where I would be getting into the story, fascinated with what was happening, only for the story to stop progressing and become dull. Backtoposts. Unfortunately, the baby was too weak to survive and died not long after the birth. An eggcorn Twist Your Tale! when one word is misunderstood as a different word based on a similarity of sound, as when 'acorn' is misunderstood as 'eggcorn'. Beware: spoiler incoming. This, my friends, is how an author put the character into the worst possible hate giving up on books, but this one is basically overstuffed AU fan fiction and it doesn't work for me on any level.
