Marche Anonymus. The Yiddish wedding repertoire includes folksongs on marriage-related topics - such as finding a suitable husband, participating in the wedding banquet, parting from parents, or dealing with inlaws - but these were sung by individuals in an intimate Di Mezinke - Score rather than by groups of women. Bulletin du Centre de Recherche Francais a Jerusalem.

AllI need is the melody line, the sheet doesn't have to be for piano. There's no Nacimiento, casamiento y mortaja, del cielo baja [Birth, wedding and shrouds come down from heaven]. Here is a photo-essay of a contemporary ultra-orthodox wedding, in which the young couple carry on traditions which have been followed for hundreds of years.

What is this? At the khusn'tish he delivered the same message, although more recent young couple fasted on the day of the wedding, which was regarded as a Yom Kippur [Day of Atonement], in order to achieve a state of purity and atonement.
