Please try. Alito often counteracted Scalia and is not an originalist like he and Thomas. Tribe - one of the country's leading Uncertain Justice lawyers - and Matz dig deeply into the court's recent rulings, stepping beyond tired debates over judicial "activism" to draw out hidden meanings and silent battles.

What is more important is that this is one area where the Roberts Court is less successful. These were the Carhart partial-abortion cases, one involving a state law and the other a federal law. It was not that long ago that politicians and the public alike thought pluralism on the Court was a good thing.

Caro narrated by: Robert A. He has argued dozens of cases at the Supreme Court, no doubt takes satisfaction in the sweep and success of the Roberts courts deregulatory campaign. Email address: .
