It offered a plausible excuse for the concealment or confusion of identity. Five letters written from London to his parents have been preserved, thanks to the diligence of the Madrid police who seized them in his father's house in their eagerness to follow the movements of this dangerous revolutionary. Yet he was no better off. The man was shocked. El sendero era apenas visible. This calling brought him in very little.

The class helps students improve their knowledge of Spanish and gives them more study of newspaper articles by Larra, This study will be preceded by information about the biography, personality, formation, ideology, political and esthetic attitude of Larra ending with an assessment of Larra and his historical importance.
